October 26, 1962

Handwritten reminder notes written by President Kennedy in his bedroom the morning of October 28, 1962 as he was preparing his message in reply to a broadcast by Chairman Khrushchev on the Cuban crisis. Caroline was in his bedroom at that time and some of these notes were written by her.

The United States on its part is glad to assure the Security Council that it has no intention of invading Cuba - and I am glad to say that as a result of the recent action of the Soviet Union - in dismantling its
- etc. the President has given order that recent flight of plane over Soviet Union

There are things left to be done - assurance against recurrence - and the U.S. is always ready to work them out -

We are hopeful that peace can prevail in the Hemisphere

(adequate inspection system) and that the provisions of the Charter and the NATO Treaty can give this assurance of that peace and security on this hemisphere.

It is our hope that in time Cuba will again - family of this hemisphere.
